Stowaway to Algiers

Returned by Air
LYDIA, Tuesday. — An Israeli, who stowed away on a foreign ship and was apprehended in Algiers by the French police, was returned today from Paris by Air France in custody of the pilot.

The man, Haim Goltziner, 38, from Pithul Tikva was detained immediately upon alighting from the plane by the airport police, who have opened investigations.

Goltziner claimed that he left Israel out of despair. On May 15, while working on the dock of a Danish ship in Haifa Port, he succeeded in concealing himself in the ship's hold. The stowaway was discovered by the crew members and was handed over to the Algerian police who treated him courteously. Four days later he was flown to Paris, and from there to Israel.
